Courses Offered for the M. Ed. in Educational Technology Leadership

The M.Ed. in Educational Technology Leadership includes 36 semester hours as follows:
Core Courses (12 hours): EDUC 5010, EDCI 5020, 5030, and EDUC 5850
Content Courses (24 hours): ETEC 5700, 5710, 5740, 5760, 5770, 5780, 5790, 6010*

This program qualifies the graduate for both levels of add-on technology certification in Louisiana. Out of state graduates must check with their state certification office for details regarding technology certification.

Core Courses
- Education, Curriculum and Instruction (EDCI)
  5020 Curriculum Development for School Improvement
  5030 Instructional Improvement and Assessment
- Education Courses (EDUC)
  5010 Educational Research and Evaluation
  5850 Action Research for School Improvement

Content Courses (ETEC)
  5700 Technology Leadership in Schools
  5710 Professional Development for K-12 Technology Integration
  5740 Educational Telecommunications, Networks and Internet for the Classroom Teacher
  5760 Design and Development of Multimedia Instructional Units
  5770 Advanced Telecommunications and Distance Education
  5780 Technology Planning and Administration
  5790 Educational Technology Research, Evaluation, and Assessment
  6010 Practicum in Restructuring Education through Technology

State of Louisiana Add-On Certifications
  Educational Technology Facilitator (9 hours): ETEC 5700, 5740, and 5760
  Educational Technology Leader (M.Ed. + 21 hours): ETEC 5700, 5710, 5740, 5760, 5770, 5780, and 5790

*No substitutions may be made in the program of study as it will impact add-on certification.